

The Commission is charged with the task of safeguarding the public's information avenues. Changing the rules to benefit media consolidation by private business is a flagrant violation of this trust. I urge you retain the present rules.